Advocacy

September 2025 Carter Initiative

- As part of the 1979 Camp David Accords, President Jimmy Carter facilitated a peace treaty between Israel and Egypt.
- The decades long state of war was ended and full diplomatic relations were established.
- The Israeli-occupied Sinai Peninsula was demilitarized and returned to Egyptian control.
- Since 1979, five more Arab countries – Jordan, the UAE, Bahrain, Morocco and Sudan – have made peace with Israel.

Always working to make the world more peaceful,
to make lives better for people.
